SELECT EXPERIENCE

- August 2017- Present Arts & Humanities Educator, Philadelphia OIC Workforce Academy, Philadelphia, PA
Established and developed a comprehensive curriculum focused on 21st century skills, the artistic thinking process, goal setting and creative problem solving rooted in artist spotlights and art & culture around the world. Coursework includes research, project proposals, in class projects, written artist statements, oral presentations, and peer critiques. Created opportunities for students to visit local art galleries and work alongside local Philadelphia artists. Mentor to students in and out of the classroom. Support Workforce Development Educators by co-teaching and reviewing lesson plans.
- January 2016- Present Adapted Arts Educator, YWCA, Princeton, NJ.
Teach adults with special abilities beginning, intermediate and advanced art making techniques and skills. Creates and develops engaging student driven projects both 2D, 3D, individually and collaboratively. Projects encourage personal growth, goal setting, experimentation, and habilitation while building a strong community of artists. Provide support and individualized attention to foster learning. Organizes an art exhibition to showcase student work annually.
- June 2016- Present Ceramics Instructor: Abington Art Center, Jenkintown, PA
Adult Classes: Intro to Clay, Ceramics Studio, Wheel Throwing.
Youth Classes: Creating in Clay
Youth Summer Camps: Creative Clay Time & Mixed Media Sculpture (ages 7-9)
Wheel Throwing Camp (ages 9-12)
Instruct a small community of adult and youth aged artists the basic techniques of handbuilding and wheel throwing. Determined to have each student complete a desired goal by the end of the 6-10 week session. Class and demonstrations are tailored to each students needs. Support is given individually to best foster artistic growth while conversation and collaborations with classmates is encouraged to help problem solve and find creative solutions.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

March 2017- Present

Active Founding Member, Spillway Collective, Philadelphia, PA
www.spillwaycollective.com

Spillway is a collective of emerging artists from different backgrounds, bringing together a variety of philosophies, techniques, and cohorts. We aim to provide a supportive, sustainable environment where emerging and professional artists are exposed to diverse ways of thinking and making.

CURATORIAL EXPERIENCE

- Dec 13, 2018-
Jan 5, 2019      “HELD”, Spillway Collective, Philadelphia, PA
With brushstrokes, lines, marks and movements artists Vessna Scheff and Yael Tsoran will create an encompassing mural throughout Spillway Collective. Their playful collaboration, individual inspiration & thoughtful consideration of space, material and each other reveal intimate truth & joyful intention.
- Aug 10- Sept 9, 2017      “We Do What We Do”, Spillway Collective, Philadelphia, PA
Press: <http://www.spillwaycollective.com/press.html>
Featured work by eighteen artists who incorporate some form of repetition into their studio practices. While each work is the result of a repeated action, the actions themselves vary greatly, from immediate mark making to precise pattern. By highlighting the unifying role of repetition in each artist’s process, this exhibition creates an inclusive environment for participating artists from the Center for Creative Works and artists from the Philadelphia area.
